What We Did: we floated like we were in space – it was cool but boy did I get sick!

What We Saw: we first took a tour of the facility to get our bearings – I won't remember much but it helped!

What We Heard: we listened to a lecture on what to expect when we were weightless

Journal Entry:

This is where you enter your memories.

There are five spaces for picture uploads – The sizes of the pictures are: 2.50x1.25" (5x)

You will be able to edit the information but not the formatting

Information has limited space and is intended for just the brief explanations

Group to Share With are a list of those who will have access to your Travel Journal as you are traveling or when you return – They will ONLY be able to see the journal pages that you choose to share with them
